

Stroud Union School District Opens $1,096,611 In Bids

Edinger Low
In General
Construction

LOW BIDS totaling $1,096,611 for construction of a high school addition and a new elementary school were opened last night by Stroudsburg Area School Authority.

The Authority is an appointed group for the Stroud Union School District.

No contracts were awarded. Final awarding of contracts will be made by Authority pending routine check of the bid securities and decision on a bond issue to finance the construction program. Low bids opened last night at a meeting at the high school in Stroudsburg were the following:

General Construction — Paul Edinger, Stroudsburg for a combined bid of $774,775 covering construction of the secondary addition and the grade school.

Plumbing and drainage — J. L. Turner and Co., Nanticoke on a combined bid of $73,100 for both the addition and the grade school.

Heating — Joseph A. Rado of Berwick, Pa. for a combined bid of $160,850 for both construction phases of the program.

Electrical Installation — William A. Donmoyer of Allentown, a bid of $87,886 for both phases of construction.

Bidding on the jobs was heavy. There were 13 bids for general construction; 12 on plumbing and drainage; 11 on heating and seven on the electrical contract.

Auditorium

Authority members opened bids on stage in the high school auditorium before an audience of about 80 persons. Many of those in the audience were bidders and contractors who began to leave when the phase of the bidding in which they were specifically interested was covered.

Bids were opened by Howard Merring, president of the Authority. They were read aloud over a public address system microphone by Authority secretary William Wells.

The school authority now has a maximum of 45 days in which to award contracts and make arrangements for its bond sale to cover costs of the building program.

A more thorough account of bidding and bids opened at the meeting will be published in tomorrow's edition of The Daily Record.

Democrats Show Gains

WASHINGTON, April 4 (P)—The strong showing of Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) in the Wisconsin presidential primary was interpreted generally today as indicating Democratic gains in the farm belt.

Kefauver ran about 105,000 votes behind President Eisenhower in an arms-length popularity contest in which each was entered in his own party's primary. Returns from 3,236 of the state's 3,321 precincts gave Eisenhower 426,408 and Kefauver 321,630.

Figures

In a state where Eisenhower got 61 per cent of the vote in the 1952 general election, the President was cut down to about 55 per cent of yesterday's total in the two primaries. Kefauver got 42 per cent of the over-all vote. John Chapple, running as a GOP favorite son candidate opposed to Eisenhower's foreign policies, fielded about 3 per cent.

Unopposed in the Democratic primary, Kefauver collected 28 Democratic National Convention nominating votes and gained some ground in that contest. He now has 65½ convention votes, more than five times as many as Adlai E. Stevenson, with 11½.

But Kefauver's showing, unusual as it was, did nothing to demonstrate that he could beat Eisenhower in November in a farm state with Republican leanings.

Democratic hopes for a November victory are based to a great extent on the belief that dissatisfaction in the normally Republican farm areas of the Midwest is sufficient to carry some of those states into the Democratic column in the presidential race.

Date Set For Starting Work At Bear Creek

BETHLEHEM, April 4 (P)—Work on the tunnel for the Bear Creek Dam and Reservoir will begin April 26 after groundbreaking ceremony on the site, the U. S. Army Engineers disclosed.

The groundbreaking ceremony plans were made by the Lehigh Flood Control Council, Inc., and President Alvin A. Schumann said Gov. Leader and members of Congress from Pennsylvania will participate.

Col. Allen F. Clark, district Army Engineer, said bids on the tunnel work will be opened April 12.

Jordan Condemned

JERUSALEM, Israel Section, April 4 (P)—The Israel-Jordan Mixed Armistice Commission today condemned Jordan for an attack last Friday night by Jordan irregulars on Israeli road traffic. One Israeli was wounded.

Stroudsburg Council Agrees To Obtain Monroe County Water Co.

Council Takes Preliminary Steps Toward Forming Parking Authority

STRUDBURG Council last night took preliminary steps to set up a municipal parking authority.

The action came after a general agreement among the councilmen that steps should be taken to provide off-street parking adjacent to the business district.

Council President Edward R. Lawson reviewed previous efforts to set up parking facilities for an additional 100 to 200 cars within the framework of the council, and told of the difficulties encountered. The net result, he said, is that nothing has been accomplished.

Conference

Lawson said he had conferred with Dr. Samuel Sullivan, who represented a number of Main St. businessmen, on the handicap which the lack of parking places agreed with Lawson that no other revenues of the borough, including meter receipts, should be pledged toward retirement of the parking lot bonds.

Knowledge

It was brought out that the legal and engineering expenses in establishment of lots would be the same under an authority as under the council. An authority has the right of eminent domain to seize property where necessary, several councilmen pointed out.

Council acted unanimously in voting to proceed with establishment of the authority.

Cancer Society Needs Our Dollars To Carry Local Program And Research

A battle is being waged this month across the nation—a battle to wipe out the scourge of cancer.

The American Cancer Society is fighting a war against the dread disease, and is calling upon Americans everywhere to supply the ammunition in the form of cash donations.

The goal for Monroe County is $6,100. In view of the fact that cancer ranks as the second leading killer among diseases affecting mankind, the Cancer Crusade merits the financial support of every citizen.

The American Cancer Society has set its goal at $26,000,000. Last year, the society could grant scientists only two of every three dollars needed for research. Yet it is only through research that the final solution to the cancer problem will be found. That is why it is so urgent for the society to raise $26,000,000 this year.

Two phases of the Cancer Crusade are under way in Monroe County. They are the special gifts and the industrial-retail solicitations. The house-to-house canvass will be conducted April 16.

Exchange Scholarship Program Meant For Students Rather Than Immigrants

It speaks well of the United States that so many foreigners who come here as exchange students or teachers wish to stay. And doubtless they would make highly desirable citizens. But the most important purpose of an educational exchange program is to enable its participants to take back the fresh knowledge and viewpoints they acquire in other countries.

That is why Senator Fulbright, Arkansas Democrat, himself the author of the best known exchange scholarship program, sponsored a bill to require these students and teachers to return to their home countries—or some other participating country—for at least two years before they may apply to immigrate to the U.S.

The Senate has passed the legislation. We hope the House and the President will concur.

This is no unfriendly gesture to our foreign visitors. It is to the best interest of their countries—and ours—that those who accept these foreign scholarships carry out their purpose.

George Sokolsky Says...

Treasury Agents Accomplished Very Little Through Communist Daily Worker Seizure

Now that some time has elapsed, it is right to ask what the Treasury believed it was accomplishing by the seizure of the "Daily Worker," and the Communist Party headquarters. On the face of it, the Treasury seems to have accomplished nothing. The "Daily Worker" never stopped publishing, not even for one day. Even if the Treasury got $2,500, it is doubtful whether that will enrich the U.S. or impoverish the Communists who seem to be able to collect funds to stay alive. The "Daily Worker" was published in the same building, the Treasury apparently not knowing that "Die Freiheit" is as much an organ of the Communist Party as the "Daily Worker."

If the object of the Treasury was to suppress the "Daily Worker," it exceeded its authority under the law and violated the First Amendment to the Constitution. If its object was to collect an income tax, it only raised the question in the minds of many citizens as to whether this is a proper method for collecting unpaid taxes. Surely if this is the ordinary method, then Congress should act immediately to make it extraordinary and unlawful. If a premise is to be searched, a search warrant should be issued by a court after due process. If property is to be seized, it should be seized after a trial, so that due process is not violated. Neither the Treasury nor any other administrative agency of the government should possess arbitrary powers to act as Prohibition agents acted and it should be noted that the excesses of governmental action, as much as a thirst for beer, brought on the repeal of the 18th Amendment and the Volstead Act.

Actually, the Treasury for several years has been studying the problem of tax exemptions by organizations not entitled to this privilege. This particularly applies to Communist organizations which raise money by various means without ever making reports either public or to the Treasury as to the details of contributors and expenditures for which a form is provided and an annual report required under the law. The "Daily Worker" runs at a loss and if they ever told the truth about contributors and expenditures, it would be found that certain Communists as well as non-Communist fellow-travelers provide funds for the deficits. If these persons take these contributions as income tax deductions, they are violating the law.

The Communist Party's claim that it had made income tax reports each year is either true or false. The Treasury statement on the subject is not clear because its agents do not feel that they are obligated, as public officials, to explain what they were doing, which is a wrong attitude to take as it serves the Communists, who conduct a world-wide propaganda, setting forth their position whereas the Treasury gives the impression of unbelievable confusion. Washington stating that they do not know what New York officials are doing and why. It may be that the law and regulations forbid these officials to make statements to the press; in which case, they ought not to take steps which require well-considered and carefully prepared statements to the press.

It is interesting to note that the FBI, which is the most expert organization in the government on the subject of Communism and Communist organizations within the United States, took no part in this situation. This division of governmental operations is unfortunate. Where there should be cooperation, there seems to be competition. If these cases have to go to the courts, it must be the Department of Justice that carries the cases forward. Why then did the Treasury not first consult the Department of Justice? The facts, so far as we can get them, is that a New York office of the Internal Revenue Service did not even consult the Treasury in Washington.

In a matter of this sort, at this particular moment in our international relations, it might have made some sense to consult the State Department. The question that really arises is whether we have a government or only a bureaucracy. Have we sunk to the irresponsibility of France?

Personally, I do not object to the imprisonment of every Communist in America, provided it is done by due process of the law and without violating the Constitution. The Constitution is more important than collecting $2,500 for the premises of the "Daily Worker."

giant and treatment of cancer, patients very often require no dressings. In order that each cancer patient within Monroe County can receive the services of the local unit, the loan closet is being enlarged to include every item of sick-room the cancer patient may require.

The county unit advises citizens of ways to detect cancer in its early stages and encourages periodic physical check-ups and prompt treatment as guards against the disease.

Every resident of Monroe County should get behind the current campaign. Only through our contributions can we hope to expand the national research program to a point where scientists can unlock the mysteries still posed by cancer.

Furthermore, our pennies and dollars will permit the county unit to continue its program of service and education so essential on the local level.

Cancer might strike next in one of our own families. So let all of us become volunteers in the battle against cancer by setting aside a generous donation for a humane, even selfless, cause.

The Senate has passed the legislation. We hope the House and the President will concur.

This is no unfriendly gesture to our foreign visitors. It is to the best interest of their countries—and ours—that those who accept these foreign scholarships carry out their purpose.

Look, professor — who feels so crowded? Why push Jupiter when large wastelands in Australia, North and South America, even part of Asia are still unoccupied? How about turning on some atomic power to sweeten up the climate right at home?

An adventurous course like Mr. Zwicky's might appeal to those who are caught in a subway crush or driving bumper to bumper on a thruway. Packing for planetary trips might seem the perfect answer to claustrophobia sufferers.

But until someone proves that our climate is worth duplicating in outer space, I'm hanging onto terra firma as she is. Our trouble, sir, is not so much over-population as that too many of us insist on being in too few places. Until we can arrange for automobiles to negotiate a safe orbit around a light pole, it seems over-optimistic to rearrange our distant friends Jupiter, Venus and Saturn.

Before experts begin tinkering with contours of the Moon, why not devise planetary air-conditioning for the homefolks—so it is Hawaii wherever we are? So long as drug stores find it necessary to stock frostbite and sunstroke remedies, we are just not in any position to offer "outside" advice. When we can sell grass skirts to Eskimos, and skis to Saudi Arabians—thereby proving we have control of the uncontrollable—only then should we think of opening a branch store.

If the object of the Treasury was to suppress the "Daily Worker," it exceeded its authority under the law and violated the First Amendment to the Constitution. If its object was to collect an income tax, it only raised the question in the minds of many citizens as to whether this is a proper method for collecting unpaid taxes. Surely if this is the ordinary method, then Congress should act immediately to make it extraordinary and unlawful.

If a premise is to be searched, a search warrant should be issued by a court after due process. If property is to be seized, it should be seized after a trial, so that due process is not violated. Neither the Treasury nor any other administrative agency of the government should possess arbitrary powers to act as Prohibition agents acted and it should be noted that the excesses of governmental action, as much as a thirst for beer, brought on the repeal of the 18th Amendment and the Volstead Act.

Initial Witness Appears In Investigation Of Signal Depot

Engineer Appears At Hearing

SCRANTON, Pa., April 4 (UPI)—The Philadelphia district office of the Corps of Engineers provided the government with the first witness today in a grand jury probe into alleged construction irregularities in the $3 million dollar Army Signal Corps Depot at Tobyhanna.

A man identified as George Stout spent several hours with the grand jury as the inquiry opened. Stout represents the Philadelphia Engineers' office, but in what capacity could not be learned immediately.

Construction Phase

THERE IS no evidence apparent at this time that the grand jury inquiry involves any of the present personnel of the Tobyhanna Signal Depot. Indications point to the investigation delving into events that took place during construction of the depot and before the Signal Corps took over.

Carrying many paper and records with him, Stout entered the grand jury room at 10 a.m. and remained there throughout the day, lunch period excepted.

U. S. Atty. J. Julius Levy, who is handling the investigation before the panel, declined to supply any clue as to Stout's connection with the probe.

The Philadelphia Engineer's office supervised construction of the huge depot in the Pocono Mountains between here and Stroudsburg.

The jury reconvenes tomorrow and additional witnesses have been summoned.

Council Votes To Sign

In approving the cooperation agreements last night, Council President Edward R. Lawson commented: "It appears there is no way of entering into this program without signing the agreements."

"Council's action means that we can now move directly ahead," said Mr. Stimson after the meeting.

"We will have a block of 28 units in the borough of Stroudsburg on a site already tentatively approved by the PHA," he continued. "The administration has also given tentative approval of a site in East Stroudsburg where 44 units will be erected."

Mr. Stimson said further several sites are under study in Stroud Township, although none have been approved. Twenty-eight units will be built there.

"Rinker & Keifer, our architects, have prepared tentative plans for the Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg sites," the authority chairman also disclosed.

Mr. Stimson said the authority will negotiate today with the First Stroudsburg National Bank to be a depository for its funds.

"The PHA's development section, headed by Howard Collins, will begin at once making plans for the further development of these projects," he continued.

The authority hopes some of the units will be ready for occupancy by Fall, he said.

In other action, Lawson appointed Councilman J. Albert Groner to head a building code committee, which will study the feasibility of establishing such a code for Stroudsburg. Groner and Borough Solicitor George T. Robinson will also select an architect and contractor to serve on the committee.

The council president also appointed a three-man traffic ordinance committee, which will be composed of Councilmen Daniel G. Warner, Sam Lee and Doran.

Pocono Fire Equipment Co. was awarded a contract to furnish the police department with a new patrol car for $470 and the department's 1955 cruiser.

Contracts for various types of streets maintenance materials were awarded to Portland Sand and Gravel Co., Shiffer's Bituminous Service and Stroudsburg Septic Tank Co.

In other action, council also agreed to buy a vacuum cleaner for the municipal swimming pool from the American Water Softener Co. for $625. And Borough Secretary Harold Snyder was authorized to advertise for bids to sell 100 feet on Brown St.

Council also approved appointment of Millard Marsh as borough fire chief, and Robert Phillips as assistant chief for three year terms, beginning Thursday, Apr. 5.

Police Chief James McConnell reported that 214 arrests and citations were made in March, and Burgess Hal H. Harris collected $368 in fines during the month.

Equipment Available

ANY MEMBER of Company G, National Guard, who needs equipment for the inspection scheduled for next Wednesday may call at the Armory in East Stroudsburg anytime today or tomorrow.

WOMAN OF THE HOUR at Civil Defense headquarters yesterday was Elsie Solotruk who received award for meritorious service to CD's ground observer organization. Two Members Of Observer Corps Honored

TWO MEMBERS of the Monroe County Ground Observer Corps last night received service certificates and awards from President Judge Fred W. Davis, county C-D director.

The awards were made to Earl R. Palmer, county GOC chief, and Elsie Solotruk, an observer, at a combined meeting of Civil Defense and the GOC at the Courthouse.

Alert Possible

The gathering heard that a C-D alert may be expected in June. And plans are already underway to activate various C-D branches to participate in the county demonstration.

The group also heard that the county C-D agency has accepted the invitation of the Tobyhanna Signal Depot to present an exhibit of Civil Defense activities here.

Pike County Man Hurt In Accident

MILFORD — A 33-year-old Pike County man was injured yesterday morning when two-state-owned vehicles were in collision on Route 6, two miles west of here.

State Police said James Hazen of Chicola Falls, a state dog law enforcement officer, suffered a broken left arm and lacerations of the forehead. He was taken to St. Francis Hospital in Port Jervis by the Milford Fire Department ambulance.

Truck

Pfc. Joseph Wroblecki, who investigated the case, said Hazen's vehicle was in collision with a Highway Department truck, operated by John Kyzer, 54, of Lloyd's Valley.

The truck was traveling west on Route 6 and had passed several vehicles in a heavy fog when the truck suddenly struck the left front end of Hazen's car, the trooper said.

Damage to both vehicles was extensive, State Police added.

Police Investigate 'Peeping Tom'

MILFORD — State Police are investigating complaints that a Peeping Tom has been bothering residents in the Bushkill area recently.

Troopers reported last night that "three or four" complaints had been received during the last couple weeks. The prowler has been seen during the early evening hours.

Blood Donor Service Plays Major Role In Saving Life

YESTERDAY WAS A FAIRLY comfortable one for one of Monroe County's Grand Old Ladies, recovering from an operation in the hospital. Though still not declared off the critical list the fact that she was at all can be attributed to the skill of the surgeons and the prompt action of the Red Cross Blood Donor service.

She required a somewhat rare type of blood (AB negative) not available at the Blood Bank. The Monroe County blood donor committee promptly swung into action, and found several local donors with that type blood who gave blood directly at the hospital, but more blood was needed.

The Scranton Chapter of the Red Cross was that day conducting a blood donor drive, and broadcast appeals over the radio for AB Negative blood for Stroudsburg. The appeal was answered and Dr. Bell, director of the Blood Bank in Wilkes-Barre, drove the blood here himself that night.

The incident is one of many in which Red Cross blood has saved lives, and Roy Mikels, county chairman, said that it dramatized not only the Center's response but also the urgent need to keep supplies of all types of blood at a high level.

Monroe County people will have a chance to donate blood today when the mobile blood donor unit will be at the East Stroudsburg Methodist Church from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. The local quota is 125 pints and walk-ins are needed to supplement the blood already pledged.

Red Cross blood is vital to Monroe County, Mikels said, and announced that during the month 19 pints had been sent from here to the University of Pennsylvania Hospital for the use of a Monroe County patient there.

Schedule For X-Ray Survey Announced

A TWO-DAY chest x-ray survey will be conducted today and tomorrow under joint sponsorship of the Monroe County Tuberculosis and Health Society and the Pennsylvania Department of Health.

Mrs. Estelle Fleming, executive secretary of the county society, said the state mobile x-ray unit will be making its second visit to the county this year and will follow this schedule.

Today — 8:30 to 9:30 a.m., Polk Township School; 10 to 11 a.m., Chestnut Hill Township School; 12:45 a.m. to 1:45 p.m., Pocono Township School; 2 to 4:30 p.m., Stroud Union High School.

Tomorrow — 9:30 to 10:30 a.m., Tobyhanna Township School, Pocono Lake; 11:30 to noon, Seasonal Sportswear plant, Tobyhanna; noon to 12:30 p.m., Tobyhanna Manufacturing Co.; 2 to 3 p.m., Coolbaugh Township School.

Students

Senior students, athletes, faculty members and employees will be covered by the chest x-ray screening program at the schools. A similar survey was made earlier this year in a number of other schools and for plant employees of the county.

The county is a member of Circuit No. 2 in an eight-state area serviced by the mobile unit, according to Mrs. Fleming. Under a new set-up, the x-ray unit will come to Monroe County two days a month, plus extra days if needed.

The new system will take the place of the county-wide program that formerly was undertaken every three years, Mrs. Fleming said.

The county society organizes the monthly programs here and supplies the clerical help. It also finances the follow-up and re-x-raying phases of the overall program, she added.

Two Divorce Decrees Granted

DIVORCE decrees were granted to two couples by the Monroe County Court.

Edith Baehr, 18 Fetherman St., Stroudsburg, has been granted a decree against Richard F. Baehr, Brooklyn, N.Y. And Effie V. Christman, 75½ Washington St., East Stroudsburg, was granted a divorce from George H. Christman, 718 Phillips St., Stroudsburg.

Rev. Bohner In Pulpit Exchange

KUNKLETON—Rev. Adam A. Bohner, pastor of the Brodheads-Hamilton Evangelical and Reformed Charge, will take part in a unique pulpit exchange program on Sunday.

He will preach in the Second Congregational Church in Manchester, Conn., while Rev. Arnold W. Tozer, pastor of that church, will preach in St. Matthew's Church, Kunkletown, at 9 a.m. and in Christ Church, Hamilton, at 11 a.m.

The exchange is part of a nation-wide program of Congregational Christian and Evangelical and Reformed churches in preparation for the union of the two denominations scheduled for June, 1957. Main purpose of the pulpit exchange program is to provide an opportunity to get acquainted.

No Discussion

There is to be no discussion of the union in the exchanges. Each minister is asked to preach a sermon such as he would preach to any Christian congregation.

When the two denominations unite in 1957 the new body, which will be known as the United Church of Christ, will be the seventh largest Protestant group in the United States.

"The proposed merger of the Congregational Christian and the Evangelical and Reformed Churches seems like a fulfillment of something which began long ago,"

Red Cross Appealing For Aid To Family Struck By Fire

RED CROSS IS APPEALING to the public who may have household articles which they wish to donate to a family that recently lost their furnishings in a fire.

There are two small children, one three months old and one a year and a half, and a crib and crib mattress as well as a high-chair are needed for them.

A chess of drawers and a kitchen table and chairs are among the articles still needed.

New Home

Biggest item needed for their new home is a small apartment-sized refrigerator or ice box.

Anyone having any of these items which they would like to donate is asked to call Red Cross headquarters, 357.

TRIANGLE shoes

Keep in mind, that NOW as always: Your dollar buys MORE, in a TRIANGLE store!

ADD UP THE COST of keeping your present car in top condition this year—new tires—engine work—paint—battery—muffler—brake linings, etc. Then talk to your Plymouth dealer about his modern financing plan; find out how it may actually cost you less money to drive home in a '56 Plymouth—the only all-new car in the low-price three.

"Let's trade! Your present car on a big, all-new, jet-styled Plymouth!"

You'll own the only low-price car that's really new. Plymouth's Aerodynamic profile, as one glance tells, is all new—design of the future today. But the other two low-price cars? They're still about the same as last year and the year before!

You'll own the biggest car in Plymouth's field. You'd have to pay hundreds of dollars more to match Plymouth's generous trunk space, over-all length, and interior roominess. (Plymouth is by far the biggest car in the lowest-price field, both inside and outside.)

You'll own the only low-price car with positive, mechanical Push-Button Driving. Greatest advance in a decade, and only Plymouth has it in its field! Touch a button...and you're off. Fool-proof! At left, safely out of children's reach.

You'll own the top performer of the low-price three. Plymouth is fastest from 0 to 30 and 0 to 60 m.p.h., as independent tests show! You get terrific take-off and passing power. Just try that new Hy-Fire V-8—with up to 200 horsepower!

So—bring your present car in now and see how much we'll allow you on a magnificent all-new '56 Plymouth. We'll surprise you! And be sure to ask about our modern financing plan—low, low payments make owning a Plymouth easier than ever! Come on in—let's trade now!

From the day you buy it...through all the years you own it...you'll spend less on a Plymouth. That's one reason more Plymouths are used as taxis than all other cars combined.

Lehighton Student Found On Beach

SEA ISLE CITY, N. J., April 4 (UPI)—Two Ursinus College freshmen, smeared with rouge, lipstick, molasses and feathers, were found wandering early today on the beach here—but police dismissed them without charges on grounds they were part of a fraternity initiation ceremony "that had a happy ending."

The youths were identified as Bob Blew, 18, of Lehighton, Pa., and Al Wilson, 18, of Cressona, Pa.

Abandoned

A motorist saw the youths wandering on the beach and notified the police who picked them up.

Police officer David Glassford said Blew and Wilson said they participated in the ceremony last night at Collegeville, Pa., and afterward were blindfolded, put in the trunk of a car and abandoned on the beach.

The boys were taken to Mercy Hospital where they were cleaned up. A student from Ursinus came in the afternoon and took them home.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

Yesterday was just the kind of a day the doctor ordered—if the doctor happened to be one with a mess of measles cases on his round of calls. Anyway, it made it much easier on harassed mothers trying to follow the doctor's instructions to "keep them warm and away from bright lights".

It was also a proper day for entertaining sewing club—not only because it was pleasant to have bright and witty company, but also because the dust wasn't spotlighted by rays of sunshine that always seem to focus on the wrong spot.

But to return to the measles—this seems to be the season, all right, and at least one Junior Choir had to cancel the anthem they'd practiced for Easter services because so many members were measly.

But at least they weren't backward—which is what the Polyanas were recently. They planned a "backward party" and at last I can tell you how that worked. They came with their clothes on backwards and through the back door. They had their refreshments backward, too, starting with dessert, and also conducted their business meeting in reverse.

I'm not quite sure how you do that. Probably approve the minutes before they're read or elect officers before the nominating committee reports. In actual practice that procedure might not make as much change as you might think.

Marion Hopeful New Faces Will Drive Chisox To Championship In American League Race

By Jack Hand

TAMPA, Fla., April 4 (AP)—With Larry Doby slugging around the .400 level and Luis Aparicio making the grade at shortstop, the Chicago White Sox think their deal with Cleveland has made them a strong pennant contender.

Who will play shortstop? That was the big question after Chico Carrasquel was traded to Cleveland with Jim Busby for Doby. Manager Marty Marion, Mr. Shortstop in his own day, believes the 21-year-old rookie from Venezuela is the answer.

"Aparicio showed me plenty," said Marion. "He has good speed and is a fine base runner. He probably won't hit with Chico, but he will cover more ground. I am convinced he can do the job for us at shortstop."

Raves

Marion raves about Doby's power and well he might. Although the White Sox led the league in hitting last year at .288, they lacked the home run punch of the other contenders. In the first 15 spring games, Doby drove in 16 runs, hit six homers and batted .412.

A year ago Marion flatly predicted, "We'll win the pennant." The Sox finished third, beaten by five games. They faded in the stretch after leading as late as Sept. 3.

Marion makes no such forecast this year. "We're a stronger club than last spring," he said. "If we had Doby last year we'd have won. But you have to say the Yankees are the team to beat."

New Face

The Sox again will be a running team this year, headed by Jim Rivera, leading base stealer in the league. "I'm partial to speed," said Marion whose Sox topped the league last year with 69 stolen bases. Aparicio stole 48 at Memphis.

The Sox may have another new face in the starting lineup. Sam Esposito, a fine looking rookie from Memphis where he hit .281, has been making a strong bid for the third base job. He probably will spell George Kell, the club's leading hitter at .312, when the 33-year-old Kell needs a rest.

Marion had consistent pitching last year with the staff turning in 20 shutouts and 55 complete games.

Many critics, however, think lack of pitching will keep the Sox out of the winner's circle. With the exception of Billy Pierce, leading pitcher in the league with a 9.7 earned run average; Jack Jarshman and Dick Donovan, head coach of the girls basketball team, is peopled with "if" men.

Tobyhanna Slugger Sets New Batting Mark

LAKE ARIEL—Mike Shimko, Tobyhanna's star outfielder, who led the Pocono Mountain Baseball Association in hitting virtually throughout the 1955 season, won the circuit's batting championship for 1955, the final averages released yesterday revealed.

Mike appeared in all of his club's 12 games and in 41 official times at the plate piled up the high total of 22 hits for a clubbing mark of .336, the highest in the loop's history.

It was Shimko's great hitting plus five other members of the Tobyhanna team, namely, Jack Dunigan, "Chubby" Deubler, Dick Dunning, Bob Van Scoten and Jim Kinsley that helped the Tobyhanna nine win the playoff championship in the Pocono loop last season.

Other Leaders

Batting leaders on the other clubs in the Pocono loop were: Carey, Moscow, .485; Fischl, Daleville, .460; Frank Curtis, Gouldsboro, .444; Bill Zawicki, Mount Cobb, .391; Santos, Hamlin, .367.

The averages were compiled by Stanley A. Prokop, president of the league.

Indians Blank Giants, 2-0

AUSTIN, Tex., April 4 (AP)—Veteran righthanders Bob Lemon and Bobby Feller combined to pitch a five-hit shutout as the Cleveland Indians turned back the New York Giants 2-0 before an overflow crowd of 7,000 today.

The Indians made only three hits, all ground rule doubles.

Redlegs Blank Senators

CHARLESTON, S.C., April 4 (AP)—Rookie Bill Kennedy and veterans Brooks Lawrence and Herbshell Freeman teamed up to toss a five hitter here today as the Cincinnati Redlegs blanked the Washington Senators, 5-0.

Bangor Holds All-Sports Banquet

Pro Football Commissioner Surprised At Navy Officials

PHILADELPHIA, April 4 (AP)—Commissioner Bert Bell of the National Football League said today he was "astonished" at the attitude of the U.S. Naval Academy in the dispute between Navy and the Baltimore Colts of the NFL over the use of Municipal Stadium in Baltimore.

Navy has objected to the Colts playing in the Washington Redskins in the stadium one day after the Midway meet Notre Dame next fall. Officials at Annapolis claim their contract with the city of Baltimore prevents anyone from using the field five days before and one day after the Navy-Notre Dame game.

Bell, reached in Atlantic City, N.J., where he is taking a brief holiday, said that "Navy's attitude in this matter is beyond my comprehension."

The commissioner said he understands that the Colts' contract with the city park board allows the Colts to play on the date in question, Nov. 4.

"If Navy is concerned about the Colts-Redskins game hurting the attendance of the Navy-Notre Dame game, professional football must have come a long way," said Bell.

Navy officials in Annapolis said they have "no comment" on Bell's remarks and were standing on their original claim for exclusive use of the stadium on the weekend in question.

Events

"It is the kind of a stadium which would be large enough to hold the Olympic games of 1964 or any Army and Navy football game and other attractions where huge crowds gather," Jack told a luncheon of the Sports Broadcasters Assn.

Basketball

Basketball letters went to Gary Strauss, Edward Trayes, J. L. Williams, Glenwood Heard, Miller Danko, Butz, Warrick, Freeman, and Keat. These awards were presented by the retiring head basketball coach, W. John Heard.

The Slaters coached by J. L. Williams, have three other exhibition games before opening the season on April 27 at Coplay. The exhibition contests are with Phillipsburg, at home, April 13; Nazareth and Pen Argyl away April 17 and 20 respectively.

Remainder

Following the Coplay date, Bangor faces Nazareth at home on May 1; Wilson Boro, home, May 4; Parkland, away, May 8; Fountain Hill, home, May 11; East Stroudsburg, away, May 15; Pen Argyl, home, May 18, and Hellertown, manager.

All games will start at 4 p.m. with the exception of the two final games with Pen Argyl and Hellertown. The Slaters will attempt to introduce night baseball to the Lehigh-Northampton League with these contests. The games under the lights will be played on the Bangor Memorial Park Field and will begin at 8 p.m.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by a musical comedy including Don Keat, Joseph Powlette, Morris Kelsey, and Wayne Pysher. A high school girls quintette accompanied by Betty Keller sang two numbers; and the Varsity B Male Chorus also rendered two vocal numbers accompanied by David Peck at the piano.

In addition to members of the athletic squads, members of the band, cheerleaders, and majorettes were also guests at the turkey dinner. Evans was chairman on arrangements.

Varsity 'E' To Present Tulsa Chorus

UNIVERSITY OF Tulsa Radio-Concert Chorus will appear at East Stroudsburg Junior High School auditorium Thursday, April 12.

For the second straight year the choral group's local appearance is being sponsored by—and will benefit—the Varsity "E" Club of East Stroudsburg.

AN ANNUAL chore a sports editor must not bypass is the predictions of things to come in the American and National League pennant races.

While we don't have the audacity to foresee the outcome of each game over a 154-tilt span, we will attempt, however, to name the "winners" in the junior and senior baseball circuits.

It could be that when World Series time rolls around we will be as wrong as the prognosticators were on the outcome of the 1948 Thomas Dewey-Harry Truman presidential battle. But who are we to quibble over such matters.

Anyway, here goes. In the American loop our choice is the Chicago White Sox. The basis for this shaky leap to the Pale Hose is founded on two "hopes" that must come through this season.

One is the acquisition of Larry Doby, the long-ball hitting outfielder the White Sox have been seeking for many a moon. The other is the return to form of Bob Keegan, a hurler whose usefulness to Manager Marty Marion was nil last season.

Another big "if" evolves around a better season for the flying Cuban, Minnie Minoso.

Doby and Keegan hold the big keys to the success of Marion's crew and Minoso can unlock the door. We feel all three will prove valuable locksmiths in Chicago during 1956 and help hang up the first pennant since 1919 for the gag-hungry Comiskey family.

Trailing Chicago in second place we see the defending champions, the New York Yankees. After that could come Boston's Red Sox, Cleveland's Indians, Detroit's Tigers, Kansas City's Athletics, Baltimore's Orioles and Washington's Senators.

The reason for the snub of the Yankees with regard to prospects is not intentional. Everyone knows what the perennial kings of the junior circuit did and can do. So why elaborate any further. As for the other teams, well they can take the "perch" out of this water by late September and make him an "ex."

Over in the National League we have to lean toward the Brooklyn Dodgers, 1955's kings of baseball. We believe that as long as the Gowanus of Flatbush reside in Ebbets Field with the same power-packed personnel, no team is going to unseat them this year as bosses of the Warren Giles-led circuit.

With the likes of Roy Campanella, Duke Snider, Pee-wee Reese, Gil Hodges, Jack Robinson, Carl Furillo and a ninth-batter in pitcher Don Newcombe, the Brooklyn's won't suffer from the lack of the long ball that breaks up games.

While it is true the aces of the above are far past the teen stage, you can't overlook the team's 132 homers compiled by Snider (42), Campy (32), Hodges (27) and Furillo (26) last year. Regardless of age, anyone can walk around the bases.

Plus this atomic-hitting, Manager Walt Alston is counting on a good season from Carl Erskine; coupled with Big Newk's potential 20 hill wins and you've got a strong nucleus for a mound corps.

Following the Dodgers it could be any number of three teams. We like best the Milwaukee Braves for second place, trailed by the St. Louis Cardinals and Cincinnati Redlegs.

In the second division we expect the New York Giants, Philadelphia Phillies, Chicago Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirates to follow in that order.

By forecasting the 1956 future of the White Sox and Dodgers we are setting ourselves up for a "crow" dinner in the fall. That would be all right too, if the "delleacy was in the form of candy.

Exclusive Entry List Marks 20th Annual Masters Tourney Which Gets Underway Today

By Hugh Fullerton Jr.
AUGUSTA, Ga., April 4 (AP)—The 20th Masters, an exclusive tournament including the greatest golfers, starts tomorrow with every prospect that it will be the finest as well as the biggest ever played.

That's a broad statement because the comparative brief history of the Masters is a record of sharp competition and superb play. From the beginning in 1934, when Bobby Jones invited some of his best-known golfing friends to help celebrate the opening of the new Augusta National Course, to last year when Cary Middlecoff tamed the matured and tougher Augusta National, the Masters has produced an almost unbroken succession of stirring finishes.

Record

This year, with a record number of 85 golfers scheduled to start and without a standout favorite in the lot, almost anything could happen—from a repetition of the three-way 1954 struggle among

Santee Claims New Legal Ammunition

NEW YORK. April 4 (P)—Wes Santee, the center of a legal brawl with the Amateur Athletic Union, declared today that "there will come a time when I will testify and the rest of the fellows will testify."

By the "rest of the fellows," he explained, he meant eight ex-athletes and three present athletes who are willing to come to his defense in his contention his expense accounts were not out of line with ordinary practice.

Suspension

The AAU has suspended Santee for life for accepting excessive expense money. Santee is fighting the case in court and a decision is expected shortly on his suit to block the AAU from enforcing its edict.

Santee said he expected there would be an appeal no matter who won the present case.

Tigers Cut Two Players

LAKELAND, Fla., April 4 (P)—The Detroit Tigers today cut off two more players to reduce the squad to 34.

Babe Birrer, 27, righthanded pitcher, went to the Baltimore Orioles for the waiver price of $10,000.

Optional

Infielder Harry Malmberg, 29, was optioned to Charleston of the International League.

Braves Defeat Dodgers, 7-5

MILWAUKEE. April 4 (P)—Milwaukee scored twice in the 10th inning, with Johnny Logan walloping a tie-breaking solo home run, to defeat the Brooklyn Dodgers 7-5 today in their homeward exhibition tour.

The Dodgers had scored two runs without benefit of a hit in the ninth to tie it again with Milwaukee's Bob Buhl, who became the second Braves' pitcher to go nine this spring.

Lane's Trading Has Turned Cardinals Into First Division Threat In National League

By Whitney Martin

NEW YORK. April 4 (P)—Frank Lane just isn't the type to grasp himself firmly by the collar in a restraining manner when he sees a chance to improve a current situation, even if the improvement is of temporary nature.

Consequently the news that he had acquired Hank Sauer from the Chicago Cubs came as no great surprise. Or rather, it was not a great surprise that he acquired a player of Sauer's age—37. That the athlete happened to be Sauer could not have been predicted.

Lane this spring had dedicated himself to a policy of patience where the St. Louis Cardinals were concerned, and expressed himself as willing to sacrifice a position or two in the standings this year if such a sacrifice would mean future prosperity.

Reasoning

"I could make deals that would assure us at least fourth-place this year," he said, "but if I could make deals that would bring the pennant, but had to squander the youth and the future of the club to make them, I wouldn't do it."

Well, we don't know how much youth he was squandering when he sent 26-year-old Pete Whisenant to the Cubs in exchange for Sauer, but the swap indicates Lane might have changed his mind slightly about the desirability of that fourth-place finish.

Sauer obviously wasn't obtained on the theory that five years from now he might just be reaching his peak and would be an integral part of the pennant-winning club Lane is sure will be representing St. Louis at that time.

It is possible that Lane, restless by nature, just had to stick his finger into the trading pot, and that he figured that Whisenant would just be riding the bench as a Cardinal, with Stan Musial, Rip Repulski and Bill Virdon taking care of the outfield positions nicely.

Sauer, of course, figures to ride the bench most of the time also, but at his age that's a comfortable ride, and the inactivity won't have any detrimental effect on his future, as it might on Whisenant.

Remarks

Anyway, despite the presence of Walker Cooper and Ellis Kinder, both 41, and Sauer, on the roster, we have a nagging idea that the Cardinals are going to cause a lot more trouble in the National League this year than a lot of folks think.

The remark you heard most from baseball men down in Florida when the subject of the Cardinals came up was to the effect that "they aren't a seventh-place club."

The cold truth is that they were a seventh-place club last year, as that's where they finished. You can run down their lineup, point out their power and the presence of such stars as Musial and Red Schoendienst, and otherwise stress their strong points, but there's no getting away from the fact that they finished seventh.

Our hunch on their improvement this year is based on the presence of Lane and Freddie Hutchinson. Lane is not going to stand still if things begin to go sour. We nearly spelled that "sour."

And Hutchinson in his quiet, steady way has the knack of instilling confidence in young players, and maintaining the respect of the older ones.

We believe they'll bring the club home in fourth place or better, regardless of any more old-age insurance Lane might take out to keep Sauer company.

Rev. Arnold W. Tozer

Rev. Tozer, Manchester, To Preach At West End Church

commented Dr. Frank W. Teske, president of the East Pennsylvania E & R. Synod.

In the early 1600s under the leadership of William Brewster, William Bradford and the pastor, John Robinson, the Pilgrims left England to settle in Leyden, Holland. There they lived and worshipped with the Reformed people. However, the Pilgrim Fathers longed for a new land, and left Holland for the new world.

"They set sail amid the prayers and best wishes of the spiritual ancestry of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, and finally reached Plymouth, Mass."

Rev. Tozer, who will preach in the local charge Sunday, was born at Orono, Me., in 1923. He was graduated from Colby College in 1947 and Andover-Noroton Theological School in 1949. His wife was graduated from Colby in 1949.

Ordained
Mr. Tozer was ordained a Methodist deacon in 1946 and a Congregational minister in 1949. In seminary he majored in clinical psychology, studying for six months in a hospital for the physically ill and six months in a hospital for the mentally ill.

He held two pastorates in Maine while a student and three pastorates since ordination. Later he was minister of the Community Church of Hudson, N. H., for three years, as minister of First Congregational Church of Manchester, N. H., for a year and a half, and pastor of the Second Congregational Church of Manchester, Conn., for the last three years.

While a student, Mr. Tozer had the unusual experience of being the minister of the Youth Church in Framingham, Mass. The church was attended by 120 senior and junior high school students, who also ran all affairs of the church, including the choir and finances.

Rev. and Mrs. Tozer were presented a scroll of appreciation and a check for nearly $800 by members of his present congregation at Palm Sunday services. During his three-year pastorate at Manchester, more than 300 new members have joined the church.

Kiwanis Club Views Film On New Housing Development

A FILM BASED on a new medium priced housing development in a higher classed area was shown at the meeting of the Stroudsburg Kiwanis Club at the Penn-Stroud hotel yesterday afternoon.

C. Edward DePuy was program chairman and Rev. Roger C. Stimson furnished the film. Alfred W. Munson operated the projector.

Considerable difficulty was experienced, but eventually everything worked out satisfactorily. William P. Wells, president, in charge of the meeting, announced that Stroudsburg club received third honorable mention in the Silver Division of the Pennsylvania District for quality in the 1955 annual achievement report. Dr. C. W. Dupee, past president, prepared the report and received the congratulations of his fellow club members.

Jack Lantz in charge of tickets for the May 4 and 5 productions of "Brigadoon" by the Community chorus, reported receiving first cash returns for tickets sold.

Announcement was made the monthly meeting of the officers and directors would be held at the Penn-Stroud Hotel Monday, at 5 p.m. It was postponed a week because of Easter Monday being the regular date.

A number of club members volunteered to make brief recordings at WVPO in support of the cancer campaign at the request of Munson.

Elwood C. German was honored for his birthday.

Emmaus and Pottstown tied for first place in points in the 17th division for the month of January. Bethlehem was second high and Allentown and Stroudsburg tied for third place. The 17th division led the state for the month.

Organization Thinks Of Future

MONTREAL, April 4 (UPI)—While the parent U. N. worries about

Middle East crisis, etc., the International Civil Aviation Organization is striving to avoid future collisions among space.

Agreement on control of outer space, in the ICAO view, is the world's next big job.

It will be studied at a June ICAO general assembly meeting in Caracas.

The guest speaker, Lt. Colonel E. F. Waggoner, Signal Corps Traffic Officer of the Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., addressed the group on the subject of Signal Corps Traffic Management.
